

JOB OPPORTUNITY: CORPORATE COMMUNICATIONS OFFICER (C4)

your future starts with us

The company is seeking a skilled and motivated Corporate Communications Officer to support its strategic communication objectives and enhance its public image.

Key Responsibilities:

- Develop and implement communication strategies aligned with organisational goals.
- Manage media relations, public relations, and internal communications.
- Oversee corporate branding, marketing initiatives, and events management.
- Support and promote corporate social responsibility (CSR) programmes.
- Safeguard the company's image and reputation through effective stakeholder engagement.

Reporting Line:

This position reports directly to the Business Development Manager.

Requirements:

- A relevant qualification in Communications, Public Relations, Marketing, or related field (NQF 7).
- Proven 5 years' experience in corporate communications, media relations, or branding.
- Strong writing, presentation, and interpersonal skills.
- Creativity, adaptability, and ability to work in a dynamic environment.
- Results-driven with excellent organisational and project management skills.

Benefits:

The Ideal Candidate:

We are looking for a proactive and confident professional who can think independently, communicate effectively, and contribute to building a culture of professionalism, transparency, and high performance.

Closing Date: 07 November 2025

Delivery Address: 15 Marien Ngouabi Street, Windhoek

Enquiries: Ingrid Benz

Tel: 061-2979000

Email: Recruitment@rcc.com.na