

WORKSHOP FOREMAN

ACTOM ENERGY NAMIBIA (PTY)LTD require the services of a Workshop Foreman for our Windhoek workshop. The successful candidate will be responsible for planning, coordinating, laying out, and supervising all workshop activities related to the maintenance and repair of industrial machinery, including distribution and power transformers, HV switchgear, rewinding of electrical AC/DC motors and generators/alternators.

The role requires, ensuring that all work is executed safely, efficiently, and in full compliance with electrical regulations, company procedures, and industry standards, with the objective of achieving optimum equipment availability, reliability, and performance specifications.

Responsibilities will be:

- Planning repair projects.
- Managing projects.
- Maintain records and repair logs.
- Fault finding, diagnosis and repairs on electrical equipment.
- The ability to assemble, evaluate, test, rotables and transformers.

Qualification's:

Electrical Trade diploma.

Instrumentation Trade diploma.

Boiler maintenance and operation experience.

Technical proficiency thru experience or education.

Fluency in English.

Minimum 10 years' experience in electrical trade.

Computer literate.

Valid driver's licence.

Only applications submitted via <http://www.jobopportunities.net> will be accepted. Only shortlisted candidates will be notified.

Closing Date: 7 January 2026.