

Lady Pohamba Private Hospital is a 298-bed, state-of-the-art private hospital in Windhoek, Namibia

LADY POHAMBA has the following VACANCY:
private hospital

PERINATAL CONSULTANT / BABY CLINIC NURSE

Lady Pohamba Private Hospital invites applications from suitably qualified and compassionate Registered Midwives for the position of Perinatal Consultant / Baby Clinic Nurse. The successful candidate will provide professional maternal and newborn care services, including antenatal support, postnatal care, childhood immunization, lactation support, and the day-to-day coordination of Baby Clinic services.

Key Responsibilities

- Provide maternal and newborn nursing care.
- Administer childhood immunizations according to national EPI guidelines.
- Conduct antenatal education classes.
- Provide postnatal and breastfeeding/lactation support.
- Manage Baby Clinic appointments, stock, billing, and records.
- Maintain accurate patient documentation.
- Work collaboratively with the Maternity Unit and the multidisciplinary healthcare team.

Minimum Requirements

- Registered Midwife with a valid professional registration.
- Minimum 5 years' maternity ward experience.
- Experience in maternal and newborn care.
- Knowledge of breastfeeding support and childhood immunization schedules.
- Strong organizational, administrative, and communication skills.
- Computer literacy, including Microsoft Office and Outlook.
- Experience with Trifour or another hospital information system is advantageous.
- A valid dispensing license is an added advantage.

Key Competencies

- Professionalism and integrity.
- Strong patient care and communication skills.
- Attention to detail.
- Good time management and organizational abilities.
- Self-motivated and proactive approach.
- Commitment to evidence-based practice.
- Ability to work effectively within a multidisciplinary team.
- Respect for confidentiality and professional standards.

The closing date: 07 September 2026

Resumes may be submitted to cv@lpph.com.na